people to cook. As a result, the children were left to roam the streets, without parental supervision of any kind.

Many of them went to the bad and the second generation in point of morals was worse than the first. Conditions have not materially changed. The children still grow up without proper care, but there is a prospect for betterment.

While we endorse all that the speaker has said about the duty of the colored people, we want to emphasize the duty of the white people to the colored people. We brought their ancestors here. They served us as slaves for three centuries. We owe them every effort that we can make to improve their condition. Will we do it?

What has become of Uncle Joe Cannon? He has not gone off for several weeks.

Some people think. Others think they think. Some don't pretend to think.

Candidate Dix, of New York, wants the tariff reduced in this good year of 1910. He is a wall paper manufacturer. In 1908, he wanted the duty on wall paper increased twenty-five per cent.

It is awful to be compelled through politeness to listen to one of your own stories told by another as original.

In Iowa, in ten years the value of land more than doubled, but in the same period the population decreased.

To read, write and spell correctly is of more value to a pupil than all else that can be learned.

Col. Jack Johnson, the champion, made some knock out speeches for Dix, the Democratic nominee for Governor of New York.

700,000 barrels of Guahangs have been shipped from New York and Boston this year. Now go find out what a Guahang is.

By a combination of corrupt interests with Republicans and Democrats, it appears that the Roosevelt ticket will be defeated in New York. The standpat Republicans with Jack Johnson, the negro pugilist, Tammany and Wall street there is unity of action. It is a fight between pure politics and corrupt politics, combined with corrupt business.

SMOKE SIGNALS OF INDIANS

How the Redman Communicated With His People, and Warned Them of Danger.

The traveler on the plains in the early days soon learned the significance of the spires of smoke that he sometimes saw rising from a distant ridge or hill and answered from a different direction. It was the signal talk of the Indians across miles of intervening ground, a signal used in rallying the warriors for an attack, or warning them for a retreat.

The Indian had a way of sending the smoke up in rings or puffs, knowing that such a smoke column would at once be noticed and understood as a signal, and not mistaken for the smoke of some camp-fire. He made his rings by covering the little fire with his blanket for a moment and allowing the smoke to ascend, when he instantly covered the fire again. The column of ascending smoke had said to very Indian within thirty miles. "Beware! An enemy is near!" Three smoke billows close together meant "Danger." One smoke merely meant "Attention." Two smoke billows meant "Camp at this place."

Frequently at night the settler or the traveler saw fiery lines crossing the sky shooting up and falling, perhaps taking a direction diagonal to the lines of vision. He might guess that these were the signals of the Indians, but unless he were an old-timer he might not be able to interpret the signals. The old-timer and the squaw man knew that one fire-arrow as a arrow prepared by treating the head of the shaft with gunpowder and fine bark, meant the same as three columns of smoke puffs. "An enemy is near." Two arrows meant "Danger." Three arrows, "The danger is great." Several arrows indicated, "The enemy is too powerful for us."

Novel Clocks.

A clock that plays soft music not only to awaken a sleeper but to put a person to sleep, thus reversing the usual function, and one that turns on the light in a bedroom are recent ideas in time-pieces—Popular Mechanics.

They were having a glass of beer on the pavilion when all at once on the walk below there was the sound of crashing glass. They looked and saw that a child of about eight months had fallen prone upon the pavement face down. His mother ran to pick him up.

"He's a glass child," lamented the woman who was drinking the beer, "and he broke himself when he fell."

"No," said the man, and looking again, she found that he was right. It was not the child that was broken, but a large bottle of milk which he had held clasped to his bosom when he fell face down.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—WHEAT—Good pit observers are of the opinion that buying of wheat which brought about 2½ to 2½ cents recovery from the low prices amounted to something like 15,000,000 bushels. The greater part of this was in the way of covering, either taking profits or losses on short lines. We regard the covering and improvement in the price as temporary. When it appears that the shorts have satisfied themselves on this upturn we believe the trade and public will be ready to turn again to

The Badge of Honesty

Is on every wrapper of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery because a full list of ingredients composing it is printed there in plain English. More than forty years of experience has proven its superior worth as a blood-purifier and invigorating tonic for the cure of stomach disorders and all liver ills. It builds up the run-down system as no other tonic can in which alcohol is used. The active medicinal principles of native roots such as Golden Seal and Queen's root, Stone root and Mandrake root, Bloodroot and Black Cherrybark are extracted and preserved by the use of chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine.

Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce at Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet which quotes extracts from well-recognized medical authorities such as Drs. Bartholow, King, Scudder, Coe, Ellingwood and a host of others, showing that these roots can be depended upon for their curative action in all weak states of the stomach, accompanied by indigestion or dyspepsia as well as in all bilious or liver complaints and in all "wasting diseases" where there is loss of flesh and gradual running down of the strength and system.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" makes rich, pure blood and so invigorates and regulates the stomach, liver and bowels, and through them, the whole system. Thus all skin affections, blotches, pimples and eruptions as well as scrofulous swellings and old open running sores or ulcers are cured and healed.

In treating old running sores, or ulcers, it is well to insure their healing by applying them Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve. If your druggist don't happen to have this Salve in stock, send fifty cents in postage stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and a large box of the "All-Healing Salve" will reach you by return post.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic, medicine of known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Though he offers the substitute for a less price you can't afford to experiment with your health. Go where they give you what you ask for without argument.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.
